St. Barth's on the Bay! Luxury waterfront living at its finest! This brand new interior design by Martin Kobus is a total transformation of the four-bedroom, four-bath home into a masterpiece of indoor-outdoor living, from the boat dock and boat lift, to the expansive waterfront decks with two living areas to take in the 180-degree views from the Golden Gate Bridge to Mount Tam, through the equally stunning great room with tall windows and skylight that bring the outside in, to a peaceful, enclosed, private courtyard for quiet reflection. Beautiful finishes including reclaimed French white oak floors from Provence, gourmet chef kitchen with stainless Viking appliances, and linen and suede upholstered walls, plus interior and exterior surround sound system, lutron lighting system and radiant heat throughout. New master suite with stunning spa bath, new guest suite, new study/family room and new dining room. Every detail was thought through, including a beautiful new beach landscape design. Four bedrooms, four baths...
